Horse Stealing Charge,

Rutland, Oct. 30,-James Markett was arraigned in Rutland county court yes-terday on an information filed by State's Attorney R. A. Lawrence charging him with stealing a horse and road cart from William Davis of Sherburne last Monday night. He pleaded not guilty and E. H. O'rBien was assigned by the court to defend him. Markett had been out of the state prison at Windsor, where he served a term for horse stealing, less than a week when he was arrested on Tuesday morning in this city. The horse which he is alleged to have stolen was found later in the day hitched to a post on Roberts avenue.

Markett carried himself with apparent unconcern in court yesterday morning. He stood erect while the information was being read to him and smiled as he said, "Not guilty," and sat down. He made no application for bail and was taken to the county jail to await trial.

Captain Wild believes, however, that the balloons will cross the first range of mountains and then sweep up the Salt Lake Basin and then northeasterly into Canada.
